GIFTCARDS: $35 increments to either Wal-Mart or Target stores

These will be given to the children who are in need of other items- shoes, clothing, underwear, or other to start the school year off with things that they need. Last year we brought items to the distributions and we ran out of sizes and it was truly heartbreaking to tell a child that you no longer have underwear, socks, shoes or clothing they need. So....these gift cards will solve that and even give them the joy of picking out something NEW to wear for school! Something many of us are blessed to do without a second thought....these kids may never have gone shopping. Let's give them all they need to start school CONFIDENT and PREPARED! Thank you all for all your continued support of Bags of Hope Central Florida and your local community!
